

There will be no entry fee this year 2010 Important rules to follow:

1. The wine should be in a clear glass bottle with new flange corks. No kits to be used. Each bottle should have a plain white label 2" from the base naming the product from which the wine was made, the year fermented. No name or Group of the entrant to be written on label. Any fancy label will lose points.
 2. Only the wine in the four categories will be accepted and judged.
 3. The judges decision will be final.
 4. Any preserves will be presented in a straight sided jar. The judges will not judge any preserve if the jar has a metal lid. Use only plain white labels stating type, month and year made. No name or Group of the entrant to be written on label. Any fancy label will lose points.
 5. All food items must be covered with cling film prior to entry on the day.
 6. All measurements must be strictly adhered to.
 7. Only one entry per class per member attending the rally. GROUP ENTRY Any member of the group can contribute an entry into this category and they do not have to be attending the National Rally.
 8. Notification of entries must be received by the 10th May 2010 at the address above by letter or e-mail. Entries by telephone will not be accepted. Each entrant must notify their Group Co-ordinator which category they are entering. If you do not have a Group Co-ordinator then you may enter in person at the above address. Groups, please indicate if you are taking part in the Group Entry.
 9. No entries will be accepted for inclusion on the National Weekend.
 10. Items must not have been used in any previous MCC Homecraft Competition.
 11. Craft items must have been made in the last eighteen months, prior to the competition.
- If you have not entered the craft competition before, have a look at the categories (MCC Web site/magazine). I have tried to include something for every level of skill.
- If you need any further information please contact me or your Group Secretary. Good luck to you all.
